

THE HEALER

PERSONAL REFLECTION GUIDE

WEEK 4

Take a few moments to intentionally slow down, releasing any burdens from the day. As you do this, invite God into this time. Do you believe that God genuinely wants good for you? Sit with this question for a while, and press into any doubts that may surface, bringing these to God. In our age of immediacy, what feelings surface as you think about the possibility that God wants you to wait for him (and his timing) to grant you the miracle you are requesting? How would adopting a servant's mindset potentially change things?

Next, pray for courage in your waiting. Ask God for the strength and resolve to worship him in the waiting, pursuing genuine relationship with him in the process. Write down your reflections below, sharing with the group if you feel comfortable.
