

THIS WEEK WITH SANDALS CHURCH KIDS;

We come to a shift in Week 4 of Bookmark'd as we dive into Samson the Scandalously Strong Savage and How He Became an Angry, Arrogant Antihero which depicts Samson's struggle of sin in Judges 13:1-5. We see how Samson's rap sheet of wrongs is still redeemed in God's grace.

ONE THING

God works through my sin.

We hope kids will learn that though we should seek repentance for our sin, God can still accomplish amazing things through it.

ACTION STEP

I can always come back to God .

God never closes the door on us - we want kids to find safety and comfort in the presence of an authentic relationship with God.

THE CONVERSATION

THE STARTER: Parents, this one's for you! Tell your kids about a time you came back to God.

1. What do you think "repentance" means?
2. Think about your relationship with God right now. Do you feel close to him? Far? Do you have more questions about having a relationship with God?
3. How do you think you can come back to God?

How can you get real about always coming back to God?

NEXT STEPS

Find this logo on the Get Real Guide and read the "Now What" Activity together. Together, make a plan on how you can put into action what your child learned today!

This week practice repenting or turning away from your sin and turning back to God. Each night before bed think about your day. Where did you honor God and where did you mess up? Thank God for helping you honor him and ask God for forgiveness for your sin. Think about what to do next time so you can honor God!
